The historic town centres of Palamós and Sant Joan

The fabric of Palamós is based around the historic town centres, the area of industrial expansion, the town of Sant Joan, the coast and the surrounding countryside. The old town of Palamos has its origins in the settlement built inside the walls where the inhabitants used to live. Fear of attacks by land and sea was either by pirates or through military disputes. The layout of the old town of Sant Joan starts with the houses and dwellings built around the square and church. Sant Joan de Palamós became a municipality in 1942.

The following are some of the notable features:

1. The Santa Maria del Mar Church, built in the 14th century, is the main church in the historic town centre of Palamós. It was probably part of Palamos defence system. It was probably part of Palamos defence system. It was probably part of Palamos defence system.

2. The Santo Domingo Church is an 18th-century chapel. It is located in the Santa Maria del Mar Church complex.

3. The Fish Auction place, where you can observe the fish auction every evening from Monday to Friday with the local fishermen.

4. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

5. The Santo Domingo Church is an 18th-century chapel. It is located in the Santa Maria del Mar Church complex.

6. El Pedró district is a district filled with white houses that is characteristic of the Mediterranean, which can be seen in the Santa Maria del Mar Church complex.

7. The classic Covent building, which was used as an air force base during the Civil War and now houses the Fish Market.

8. The Santa Anna de Vilafranca Church, located in the east part of the town, is a 14th-century church that was restored in the 19th century.

9. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

10. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

11. The Santa Maria del Mar Church, built in the 14th century, is the main church in the historic town centre of Palamós. It was probably part of Palamos defence system. It was probably part of Palamos defence system. It was probably part of Palamos defence system.

12. The Fish Auction place, where you can observe the fish auction every evening from Monday to Friday with the local fishermen.

13. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

14. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

15. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

16. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

17. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

18. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

19. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

20. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

21. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

22. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

23. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

24. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.

25. The Fish Market, part of the Municipal Cemetary, where you can see the fish auction every evening.